"Kailasa" — a name borrowed from the sacred peak itself. Brahmatal is one of the Garhwal's finest winter treks — a frozen lake said to be where Lord Brahma once meditated, ringed by views of Trishul and Nanda Ghunti.

THE JOURNEY

TREK MAP

From the riverbank to the frozen lake and back

The drive runs Rishikesh → Lohajung along the Alaknanda river valley, with the trek continuing on foot through Bekaltal and Jhandi Top to Brahmatal Lake, before the summit push to Brahmatal Pass and the descent via Daldum.

ARRIVAL IN LOHAJUNG & ACCLIMATIZATION

294 km / 11–12 hrs

7,600 ft

Guest House

- Meals: Evening tea-snacks and dinner
- You will start your journey to Lohajung, 294 km from Rishikesh, taking approximately 11–12 hours. The views during this drive are mesmerizing.
- You will drive uphill through the Kumaon area into Garhwal's Himalayan Belt, spotting the Shivalik ranges along the way.
- You will also cross three of the five iconic unions of the Alaknanda River (Karnaprayag, Rudraprayag and Devprayag) heading towards Lohajung, in the Garhwal Himalayas' Chamoli district.

LOHAJUNG TO BEKALTAL

4.5 km / 5 hrs	9,850 ft	Camping

- Meals: All meals
- Right after starting the trek, you can spot the Nanda Ghunti Peak.
- After crossing the forests, you will reach Mandoli village amid colossal mountain ranges.
- A ten-metre wooden bridge runs over a river where you can fill your water bottles. Beyond it lies Begum, a resting spot overlooking the Bagdi and Navali Bugyals, with two more rivers 20 minutes further on.
- Today's camp sits in a woody, Rhododendron- and oak-scented forest – watch for Blue-fronted Redstart, Asian Barred Owlet and Himalayan Woodpecker.

BEKALTAL TO BRAHMATAL CAMP

7 km / 7 hrs	10,650 ft	Camping

- Meals: All meals
- Enjoy the snow-capped pathways that lead to Brahmatal, spotting Mt. Trishul through the tall trees as you ascend.
- Bekaltal Lake appears after a two-hour hike, creased with oak trees and wrapped in deep silence.
- Higher up, dense tree cover keeps snow lingering on the trail until it opens onto Talindi Top, with exceptional views of Mt. Nanda Ghunti and Mt. Trishul.
- Descend about 1.5 km to the Brahmatal Campsite – Brahmatal Lake is just 500 metres further, believed to be where Lord Brahma once meditated, frozen through the winter.

BRAHMATAL CAMP TO PEAK & RETURN TO LOHAJUNG

8 km / 5–6 hrs	11,570 ft ↓ 10,650 ft	Guest House

- Meals: All meals
- Today you ascend to the Brahmatal peak, along challenging paths across Bada Jhandidar and Chota Jhandidar.
- A mountain ridge lines this path, with valleys falling away on either side and overwhelming views of the Himalayan ranges.
- From the peak, take in the snow-capped Himalayan panorama, then trek 9 km back down to Lohajung.
- Arrival at Lohajung around 4–5 PM, followed by evening refreshments, dinner and rest at the guest house.

LOHAJUNG TO RISHIKESH

250 km / 10 hrs	—	Rishikesh

- Meals: —
- Departure from Lohajung to Rishikesh early morning around 6 AM.
- 250 km drive via Karnaprayag, Devprayag and Rudraprayag.
- Expected arrival around 6 PM – tour ends.
