Known as the "Queen of Winter Treks," Kedarkantha packs summit views, frozen lakes, and snow-laden pine forests into one of the most rewarding beginner treks in the Himalayas.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

ABOUT THE PLACE

Kedarkantha is one of the most popular winter treks in India, located in the Uttarkashi district of Uttarakhand. Standing tall at 12,500 feet, the trek offers a perfect blend of adventure, natural beauty, and spiritual vibes.

Surrounded by snow-covered pine forests, frozen lakes, and breathtaking views of Himalayan peaks like Swargarohini and Bandarpoonch, it's often called the "Queen of Winter Treks." The journey to the summit is relatively easy, making it ideal for beginners.

Along the way, trekkers camp at picturesque spots like Juda Ka Talab and Kedarkantha Base Camp. Steeped in mythological tales and raw Himalayan charm, Kedarkantha is a must-do for nature lovers and adventure seekers.
